

'A Marvellous Work and a Wonder': Isaiah 13–14; 22; 24–30; 35

September 21–27, 2026

Week 39 | Isaiah 13–14; 22; 24–30; 35

1. Introduction

Sweeping prophetic arc from Babylon's fall to the Restoration — trace judgment → mercy → warning → restoration.

This week's readings present a complete prophetic arc.

Babylon's fall = type for pride of the world

Key of David = Christ's authority over life/death

Spiritual danger comes from within, not without

2. Key Doctrine

Core messianic prophecies and their fulfillment.

Isaiah contains five key messianic prophecies.

Scripture	Messianic Title	NT/BoM/D&C; Fulfillment	Meaning & Application
Isaiah 22:22–23	Key of David	Revelation 3:7	Christ holds authority over life, death, and salvation
Isaiah 28:16	Precious Cornerstone	1 Peter 2:6; Ephesians 2:20	Christ is the sure foundation

3. Application Questions

Personal reflection prompts.

How do I recognize pride in my life?

The pattern is self-exaltation above God's will

Scripture: Isaiah 14:13–14; Moses 4:1–4

Why This Matters:

Recognizing the pattern helps us identify it in our own hearts

When I feel spiritually drunk, how do I sober up?

Return to the Source of truth through scripture and prayer

Scripture: Isaiah 1:18; 35:8

Why This Matters:

Daily scripture study + prayer = spiritual sobriety test
